

Yu-Con

Yukon and Rural North Conference

Sept. 15-16, 2017 | Whitehorse, YT

Together with the PEER Team, the Alberta College of Family Physicians is pleased to bring our CPD Roadshow to the Yukon this fall!

Based on your feedback and identified topic areas, the inaugural Yukon and Rural North Conference (“Yu-Con”) brings together family physicians, residents, and students with their allied care colleagues (pharmacists, nurse practitioners, nurses) to learn, discuss, and share the latest studies on evidence-based medicine.

VENUE INFORMATION: KWANLIN DUN CULTURAL CENTRE

1171 Front Street | Whitehorse, YT | 1-867-456-5322

Located at the foot of Black Street, the sustainably-built Kwanlin Dun facility is one of the largest meeting spaces in the City of Whitehorse. The facility houses a diverse number of spaces, including the new Whitehorse Library and Kwanlin Dun's archives. Nestled on the bank of the Yukon River, it provides a welcoming and peaceful space featuring a bright and spacious corridor to provide a place for people to gather and relax or immerse themselves in new and exciting cultural exhibits.
